Prof.in Dr. Valeriya Dinger

Department of Macroeconomics

Information about the

Advanced Seminar in Macroeconomics

Macroeconomic Impact of AI

Winter term 2026/2027

Content

The participants will each be assigned a relevant scientific article on the topic, which they will analyze, summarize and place in the scientific context. They will then submit a written assignment and present their findings to the course.

Registration

If you are interested in participating, please send a current proof of your previous examination achievements (HISinOne overview as PDF file) to our secretariat (e-mail address: sekretariat.makro@uni-osnabrueck.de) by 12 October, 2026, 11:59 pm. You will then be notified until October 16 whether you have been offered a place in the seminar and have been invited to the kick-off event.

Due to capacity reasons, the number of seminar places is limited to 24 participants. Participants are selected on the basis of their grade, their course of study and the macroeconomics courses they have passed. The submission of your examination certificates therefore does not constitute a binding registration. If you have not applied in time or have not been offered a place, you will unfortunately not be able to take part.

After you have received a positive confirmation for the seminar place from the department, please register bindingly under HISinOne until October 27, 2026, 11:59 p.m.

Any further up-to-date information about the seminar will be disseminated via Stud.IP.

Schedule

On 20 October 2026 at 15:00 s.t. the kick-off event of the seminar will take place in room 15/130, where the procedure for assigning topics and further organizational information will be announced.

The latest deadline for submitting the seminar papers is December 23, 2025 at 11:59 p.m. Please send the paper in electronic form (PDF) to our secretariat (e-mail address: sekretariat.makro@uni-osnabrueck.de) by the above date.

The presentations will take place from January 20 to 22, 2027. The exact times and the room will be announced later. Attendance is mandatory for all dates.

Thank you for your interest in our seminar and we look forward to meeting you in person at the kick-off meeting.
