| Advice | With the semester ticket (for students) you are allowed to go by bus in Osnabrück. Beside this you can use some trains within lower Saxony for free. Have a look here. |

Bicycle

General information
- You do not need a license for bicycles
- The red stripes on the streets are for bicycles as well as extra marked streets for bicycles
- It is forbidden to drive on the walking ways
- Light is very important (front light and back light!) – if the police sees you without it, you will get charges

Where to buy a bicycle?
- “Fietsenbörse” More information
- Sometimes the city has “Lost property auctioned bicycles” More information
- Second hand bikes More information
- Newspaper NOZ More information
- ebay-Kleinanzeigen More information

Car

Driving license
- License from EU Countries are valid
- License not from EU Countries can be proofed and allowed in Germany. Therefore please go to the License office.

Stadtauto (city car)
- If you don´t have an own car it is possible to register for a “Stadtauto”. This cars are shared with others and they are located around Osnabrück and you can take it and drive it for a small amount of money. More information
